

WP7 Child, Adolescent and Young Adult health.

Anthony Staines

Sara McQuinn

School of Nursing and Human Sciences,
DCU, Dublin, Ireland

WP7 Child health 7.1

- Task 7.1 To develop a blueprint for health information in RMNCH to be sustainably integrated in a European health information system for health care, public health surveillance, research and policy making
- Review and merge existing maps, as well as undertake data collection

WP7 Child health 7.2

- Task 7.2 To Optimize the sustainability, timeliness, comprehensiveness, quality and use of perinatal health information from routine systems as specified in the Euro-Peristat roadmap.
- Support sustainable perinatal health reporting from routine health information systems in Europe by

WP7 Child health 7.3a

- Task 7.3 To create a research observatory for reproductive, maternal, newborn and child cohorts and registries.
- Maintenance and expansion to new cohorts (see www.birthcohort.net)
- Report with proposal for improved integration of cohort and registry data sources on RMNC

WP7 Child health 7.3b

- Harmonizing and bridging routine administrative and health data collection systems and indicators with research data collections.
(DCU)
- Review of possible sources of relevant administrative and research data on maternal and child health

So, what are we doing?

- Meetings
- Draft reports
- Workshops

Child, Adolescent & Young Adult Health

- Ages
 - 0 to 24
- Topic
 - Quality of life
- Perspective
 - Rights based, developmental

Scope

- Ridiculously wide
- Making case for doing the measurement
- Showing feasibility
- Building on what exists

Areas

- Health
- Education
- Employment
- Housing
- Family formation
- Parenting
- Justice

Perspectives

- Child and young person centred
- Rights based
- Developmental perspective
- Emphases on two groups
 - Typical Child/Young person
 - Marginalised Child/Young person

Outputs (so far)

- Draft paper on Measuring and Improving the Quality of Life of children and young people
- Survey on information needs of public health people/policy makers (done, analysis underway)
- EUPHA workshop in 2016 (planned)

Can you help?

- Yes
- Contact us
- anthony.staines@dcu.ie
- sara.mcquinn2@mail.dcu.ie

Questions?